MILLER HUGHES

Republican Candidate for Congress
From First District Addressed
a Crowd at Court House

Miller Hughes, of Wickliffe, Republican nominee for congressman from the first Kentucky Congressional District, addressed a crowd of Crittenden county voters at the court house Monday afternoon. While the usual large County Court day crowd was in town, the attraction of horse trading and airplane exhibitions came in competition to that of the speaker and drew away part of the crowd.

The speaker was introduced by Mr. T. A. Fraser, who in his characteristic way called the attention of the audience to the momentousness of the issues of the campaign.

Mr. Hughes stated that he had no personal feelings for his Democratic opponents. He was born in Halland county, the father of a Democracy and reared in a Democratic household. It was the issue of that party that he had to fight, as they are all democracies and tricksters. Their policies and principles work out in the long run to the detriment of the people.

The speaker then the League of Nations, the only thing with which we have no quarrel. If enacted he said, America would doubtless get on all right.

RED CROSS COURSE

Instruction in the principals of home nursing is now within reach of every woman and girl in Crittenden county. Miss Margaret Wall, representative of the Lake Division of the American Red Cross, was called by chapter officials to give the course.

More than 10,000 women and girls in the United States have had this instruction as a means of classes in home hygiene and care of the sick which is conducted by a graduate of the Red Cross under the auspices of the local Red Cross chapter.

Crittenden County Red Cross chapter has decided to have this instruction for the women and girls in this county and in so doing they will take advantage of the big opportunity. During the influenza epidemic there was the greatest need of doctors and nurses and the appalling lack of knowledge in the simplest principles of care for the sick was a serious handicap. We all need to know how to take care of our own.

There are four lessons in the course and each lesson will be given weekly to the class. Every woman and girl is urged to join a class. The course is free of charge.

Mrs. Doherty, chairman of local home nursing work has been appointed to the charge of organizing the classes and will be glad to give any information concerning the course offered.

MISSOURI COUPLE GET MARRIED

Miss Glenn Marie Richmond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manley Richmond of 635 Linden Avenue, Clayton, Mo., was married to Mr. Ralph V. Davidson of Henderson Ky., at 8:30 P. M. October 2 at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives, by the Rev. George Hulbert.

The bride was charmingly dressed in a silken gown trimmed with chantilly lace and her veil of tulle fell from a lace cap, forming a graceful train. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. Mrs. W. T. Short was her sister's matron of honor and sole attendant. She wore a royal blue velvet gown and carried a bouquet of American beauty roses. Mr. Tonia Tate of Evansville was best man.

The home was beautifully decorated with ferns and evergreens. Immediately after the ceremony a delightful reception was given, after which the bride and groom left for the south. After November 1, they will be at home to their friends in St. Louis.

TEACHERS MEETING

The association of the teachers of Division 2 met at Glendale October 1, 1920, was called to order by the Sup't. J. L. F. Paris.

Prof. Hall of Tolu conducted the devotional exercises in a very impressive way.

Quite a number of the teachers were present and all had a pleasant and profitable day. Dr. Fraser was on the program and responded with a very earnest and helpful address on the beauty and importance of "Nature Study."

Prof. Jaggars of Marion discussed the consolidation of schools in a common sense, practical way. His address was much enjoyed by all present. We are glad to have such a man in the county and feel that he is going to be a great help to us. Judge Nunn made a talk in which he stressed what was said by Prof. Jaggars, especially did he insist on the elimination of the poor lighting of most of the schools in Crittenden county.

Some supervised play was given by Miss Carrie Morse and the pupils of Caney Park. The games were well played and enjoyed by the large crowd.

The exhibits were judged and ribbons were awarded to the following: Thora Terry of Forest Grove, best apples and sweet potatoes; Adie Hughes and Rudolf Belt of Glendale, best Irish potatoes and corn. Pink ribbons were given to Olive Lucas of Caney for Irish potatoes and William Lester Terry of Forest Grove for corn.

Rev. G. P. Dillon, the newly appointed pastor of the Methodist church at Marion held his first service here Sunday, preaching two sermons morning and evening to large congregations. Rev. Dillon has just vacated the pastorate of the Methodist church at Madisonville and succeeds Rev. H. R. Short.

ORGANIZE AN ASSOCIATION

The teachers of Crittenden county met at the Marion school building Saturday October 9, and organized an Educational Association. Prof. Jaggars was made president, the vice presidents consist of the presidents of the four county divisions, Miss Gladys Graves, secretary and Miss Stella Atkins, treasurer.

The object of this association is to arouse the people of Crittenden county to a greater interest in educational affairs. The meetings will be held every second Saturday in the school auditorium. The public is not only invited but urged to become members of this association and help Crittenden raise her standard. A survey of the county's wealth will be made, also health and along other lines.

SHOOTING AFFAIR IN LIVINGSTON

On Sunday morning of last week, near Smithland, in Livingston county, while quarrelling over their hogs getting into each others field, Lawrence Crawford, 26 years old, was shot and seriously wounded by a neighbor, Jim Green, also 26 years old. Crawford was struck in the face and front part of the body, the weapon used being a shot gun loaded with number 5 shot. He was taken to Smithland and his wounds dressed by Dr. J. E. Fox, who found that Green was arrested and taken to Smithland, placed under $1,000 bond for his appearance at the examining trial set for next Monday.

SENATOR DEBOE AT EDDYVILLE

Former Senator W. J. Deboe addressed a big crowd of Lyon county voters at Eddyville Monday, discussing the issues of the campaign in behalf of the Republican Presidential candidates. Every seat in the big hall was occupied by interested voters, men and women, and much applause was given the speaker while he ripped the League of Nations up the back and told of other alleged delinquencies of the Democratic administration at Washington.

SPELLING CONTEST

In Educational Division 2, of which Miss Emma Terry is president and Miss Sue Moore, secretary, there will be a spelling contest at Crooked Creek church on Friday, October 22, from 10:30 A. M. to 3:00 P. M. A good attendance is expected.

A MIGHTY GOOD MULE

Mr. Hugh McConnell, of Fords Ferry was in the city Saturday on business and while here he naturally dropped into the Press office. Mr. McConnell is a good farmer and has a number of fine mules on his farm near the Ferry. In coming to town he chose as a saddle animal one which, though he can't travel, perhaps equal to an airplane, he gets there and though the mule is some 30 odd years old, Mr. McConnell considers him the best in the county.

HURRICANE TO REBUILD CHURCH

Ag all day meeting with dinner on the ground was held at Hurricane Camp Ground Saturday, its object being to arrange plans for the erection of a new church building and also a new tabernacle to take the place of those recently burned.

A good-sized crowd was present and a number of addresses were made. It was decided that a new and handsome church should be erected on the site of the old building as soon as possible and a building committee was chosen to raise funds and look after the other matters pertaining thereto. The good and enterprising people of the Tolu circuit, irrespective of church affiliations will come to the aid of this committee.

It was also agreed at this meeting that later on a new tabernacle should be built that the annual camp meetings may continue. Rev. O. M. Caphaw is pastor on that work.

ARE STUMPING THE COUNTY

In a sweeping campaign of education local apellibinders, both Republicans and Democrats, are stumping the county by school districts in an untiring effort to enlighten the voters of Crittenden county, both men and women, on the momentous issues before the people. Audiences, anxious to be set right or more firmly established in their opinions on the subject, leave their fire-sides and come out to hear the speakers.

If enacted will the League of Nations bring permanent peace or everlasting war? "It will bring permanent peace," say the Democratic orators. (Great cheers and "hats" so from the Democrats.) "It will bring everlasting war" cry the Republican orators (Thunderous applause and "you betcher" from the Republican hearers.) Will it cause our sons to stay at home or drag them into the battlefields of Europe? (Much scratching of heads and "dunno" from the Independent voters.)

IS 84 YEARS OLD

Mrs. P. A. Beard, of Shady Grove spent Monday in the city, the guest of the family of her brother, J. M. McChesney. Mrs. Beard is 84 years old, is still remarkably strong, hearty and healthy, and does her own cooking and other household work.

MRS. SAM ASHER IS IMPROVING

Mrs. Sam Asher, living in the Tradewater section in this county, who on Sunday of last week was thrown from her buggy and run over by two buggies and a horseback rider, is slowly improving. Other facts than those given in the Press last week would indicate that there was no lack of pure cussedness or inexcusable carelessness on the part of those buggy drivers and horseback rider.

It seems that the boys were running a race on the public highway and while Mr. and Mrs. Asher were returning from church in their buggy, the boys overtook them, the foremost buggy which was driven by Lester Habb, struck the Asher vehicle, overturning it and throwing both occupants out into the road. The second buggy, which was driven by Ben Herrington, then dashed by, running over Mrs. Asher before she had time to get to her feet. The horseback rider, who was Dan Golden, followed closely behind the buggies, also running over the prostrate body of the woman.

Mrs. Asher was seriously injured, both wrists being broken and her body a mass of bruises. Mr. Corbett Herrington, an older brother of Ben Herrington, came over, it is said, to the Asher home and offered to buy Mr. Asher a new buggy to replace the old one, and to pay the physician for his medical attendance on Mrs. Asher. Next morning, however, he returned and told Mr. Asher that he would have to withdraw his proposition as the boys had left during the night for parts unknown to him.

(Mr. Asher received only slight injuries.)

KY. REUNION IN CALIFORNIA

If a Marion citizen had been visiting in Echo Park in Los Angeles, California last Sunday he would have received quite a surprise. He would have thought that Marion had been moved out on the Pacific Coast. There was a reunion of Marion folks now residing in Los Angeles. The following were present: Jas. M. Freeman, wife and grand-daughter, Martha; Perry Naggie, wife and grand-daughter; Ernest Campbell, wife and children, Harry and Jack; John I. Travis, wife and children, James and Carrie; Bob Wilson and wife (who was Bettie Dyer) and son, Mason; John Parish and wife and children, Rebecca and Walter; John Rice, wife and son; Mrs. Mary Travis, Miss Sarah Travis and Miss Anna Lisa Johnson.

They had an old time Kentucky dinner including everything from "hot dogs" to hot coffee. The event of the day was the eating contest which ended in a tie between Jim Travis and Anna Lisa Johnson. Mrs. Naggie running a close second. Jack Carnahan required the most attention as the fish in the lake attracted him, very much. John Parish took all the kids on the lake without any mishap. Sarah Travis and Miss Naggie were the heavy weights, while Jim Freeman was at peace with every one (while he was eating).

Other Marion people who were in Los Angeles and were not present all the hour family: Frank Dyer and wife, John Silberry, Agnes Travis, Miss Fleta Barnes and several others. It is a great pleasure to these Marion people who live in the far west to be able to get together and talk of old times back in Marion and when other people from Kentucky decide to visit the Pacific Coast, to sure to drop into Los Angeles and join one of these reunions.

THE SACRED SPOT IN CRITTENDEN

BY C. V. FRANKS

The one place—the Sacred Spot in Crittenden, the love and memory of which men and women have carried with them into all parts of the country, is the shaded, grass-covered and holy hill at Hurricane.

In any community of any State one may find some one who has either experienced personally the uplifting influence, or who has been bettered by coming in contact and touching elbows with those who caught a glimpse of the things higher and holier at Hurricane.

For thirty years the Camp-meeting has been an annual event—one to which all the people in the surrounding community, as well as those in adjoining counties, look forward to as being more momentous, perhaps, than even the Yuletide season.

Here for ten days each year, Methodists and Presbyterians, Baptists and the followers of Campbell, meet and mingle in one accord, offering up prayers of thanksgiving, while the hills echo with songs of praise to the Most High.

The first Camp-meeting was held in 1890, under the supervision of a reward. Of the original committee all of whom have gone to their committee of God-fearing men, practice remains but two—J. H. Perry and J. T. Terry, who are growing old in the service, and whose hearts and lives have been made bigger and better by the untiring endeavor for good.

The places vacated by fathers have been filled by sons, and thus the business interests of this religious enterprise have been successfully carried on while the wonderful story of mercy preached here to untold thousands has been carried and retold to people in all parts of the world.

Many of the most renowned evangelists and ministers of any age have participated in these revivals. Deep-thinking, soul-sifting men of God have given of their time and talent clarifying the plan of salvation to vast throngs assembled under the spacious tabernacle erected at the crest of the hill.

Listing a few of these—Smith; Bingham; Niles; the Baptist; Hirth; Crow; Clark; McConnell; Johnston; Stump; Powell; Adams; Hogard; Hill and many others.

The great song leaders and religious workers have also been upon the roster; among them—Rhinehart; Fraisher; Deaton; Yates and the Leans.

To many of these Hurricane has been and is "Home, Sweet Home." Their annual return is cause for rejoicing and with souls filled with goodness and gladness and heartened to praise divine, they bring a message of peace to an honest people who love God and honor their fellow beings.

In passing it is necessary to mention some of the laymen who have been instrumental in building and maintaining this holy institution: Goetz; Urdler; Perry; Terry; Love; Stevenson; Clark; Lucas; Hamilton; Daughtrey; Phillips; Franks; Franklin, while the light that shines the brightest is that of Uncle Jimmy Wooster, who has missed but a single service during all these years.

But let us touch for a moment another phase of the sanctity of this holy hill. While the passing years have seen thousands and thousands of lives pledged to the cause of Christ at Hurricane, the densely shaded slope is held sacred by men and women everywhere as the spot where they made other vows but little less holy.

And for more than a quarter of a century the hill at Hurricane has been a place for annual assembly of those whose lives were pledged there with thousands of others, many of whom have established homes in remote parts, and to whom the right atmosphere and tender memories of the past are magnets which draw them back year after year.

These are motives which will actuate the rebuilding of the tabernacle recently destroyed, and which will again be surrounded by new and better camps while His great cause goes marching on.

CALL TO PASTORATE DECLINED

Rev. W. P. Morrison of Louisville, who was called to the pastorate of the First Baptist Church in Marion, has declined to accept the work. He preached two sermons at the church Sunday morning and evening and returned to Louisville. It is not known yet who will be the pastor to succeed Rev. J. R. Trotter.

Miss Emma Bell of Dawson was in the city Saturday enroute home from Salem where she accompanied her sister, Miss Golda Bell, who has been in a Louisville Sanitarium.

JUST A FEW FACTS

When a farmer ships a car load of cattle, or a ton of hay, or any other product away to the city market the money he receives becomes a part of the wealth of this community.

It is upon the income from the products that we ship away that we depend for the prosperity of our home people.

That is plain to every thinking person.

Every article we consume or use must come from some source. If it is produced at home the money we pay for it all remains in circulation at home. But if it is not produced here we must buy elsewhere.

That, also, is a fact well known to all people.

A retail merchant can buy the article we want from the manufacturer or wholesaler for considerably less than we would have to pay if we ordered direct from the factory. That is the discount made by manufacturers to all dealers.

That is still another fact which requires no extraordinary amount of brains to understand.

If we send away ourselves for what we want all of the money paid for the article goes out from the community and helps to enrich some person in some other community.

If we buy from a local dealer the wholesale price only is sent away, the dealer's profit remaining in circulation as part of the wealth of our own community.

That is the most vital fact of all, and yet it is one which many excellent citizens seemingly fail to comprehend.

A home trading community is invariably prosperous.

A foreign trading one is more often depressed.

In either case, it is as we make it.

IS IT YOU?

Every one knows him.

He is energetic, painstaking in everything that he does, and honorable to a degree.

He is considerate of the faults of others, and realizes many of his own imperfections, striving consistently to overcome them as best he may.

He is not a saint, and neither is he a great sinner.

He is what we term a good citizen and a credit to this community. Is it you?

Prices, we are told, are still coming down. With the use of smoked glasses they should soon be in sight.

MRS. STEWART SPEAKS HERE

Originator of Moonlight Schools
Addresses Big Audience in Marion Opera House

Mrs. Elora Wilson Stewart, one of the most brilliant women and first organizer of the moonlight schools in the mountains in this state, addressed a large audience at the Opera House Wednesday afternoon in behalf of the Democratic national ticket.

More than half of the big crowd which filled the opera house was composed of women voters.

The speaker told her audience that she was glad she was a woman, an American and a Democrat. In view of the momentous issues of the present campaign, where wrong was lined up against right, she would be a shameless of herself if she was not a Democrat.

Mrs. Stewart, who made the speech seconding the nomination of Gov. Cox for president at San Francisco, gave a glowing account of the workings of the national convention. Its earnestness and enthusiasm, contrasting it with the apathy and lack of interest shown at the Republican convention at Chicago.

Mrs. Stewart devoted most of her speech to a discussion of the League of Nations, saying it threatened to take away from the people. She advised every one who had not read the League of Nations to do so, as no one could read it without prejudice and not be for the ratification by Congress.

She paid a tribute to President Wilson and commended the work of his administration.

Great interest and much enthusiasm was manifest by the audience and rousing applause was given the speaker from the beginning to the close of her address.

REPUBLICAN COLUMN

By County Campaign Committee.

The voters of America will not on the League of Nations.

When the polls are closed November 2, 1920, one of the greatest victories ever recorded in the history of our nation will have been won by the election of Warren G. Harding as president of this independent, peace-loving nation of ours, and it will be heard around the world, that America is America for Americans first.

The miserable failure on the part of the Democratic campaign speakers to interpret the League of Nations to mean no more wars, and the Republican campaign orators on the other hand having shown so plain and clear that the League of Nations does mean war and more wars and that our boys would be pulled away from their happy pursuits of life here in America, to go across the ocean, and there bleed and die trying to settle the quarrels and disputes of the European countries, that the minds of the voters are now made up and are anxiously awaiting the election day to come when they can go to the polls as a mighty legion of liberty loving American citizens, and register their vote against this dangerous pro-america League of Nations that Wilson and Cox say we must have.

President Wilson says that we would be morally bound to conform to any desire of the League council. And Cox says that he and President Wilson are perfectly agreed and are of one accord. Therefore a vote for Cox means a vote for the League of Nations.

In the famous interview which took place between various Senators of the United States and President Wilson, for the purpose of discussing the League of Nations, the President was asked by Senator Harding whether in his opinion we would be legally bound to conform to any desire of the League council. The President replied that no legal responsibility would exist. Senator Harding then asked Wilson whether or not there would be under such circumstances a moral responsibility. The President replied that the moral responsibility would undoubtedly exist and to refuse to further discussing to President Wilson admitted that the moral responsibility of a nation was much higher than its legal responsibility and that morally we would be bound to conform to any desire of the League of Nations.

Therefore, under President Wilson's own interpretation of the meaning of article X, the United States would be bound absolutely to carry out the desires of the League of Nations.

Men and women of this county, go to the polls and help make the Republican success an overwhelming one that it will forever and we are extravagantly, efficiently and honestly in government. And let there be a new glory to the stars and stripes when the sun rises on the morning of November 2.

BIG MEN ENDORSE NEW SCHOOL LAW

Democratic Senator and Republican Leader In Accord
On Welfare of Children

Senator J. C. W. Beckham was seen this morning by your staff representative who asked the Senator for his views upon the new County School Administration Law. The Senator's only hopeful statement is given in full below.

"While I have not had a chance to read the entire school law passed by the last session of the legislature, I have been informed of its general provisions and am very hopeful that it will accomplish great good for our county schools and enable them to make greater progress than ever."

"It is hardly necessary for me to say how deeply interested I am in the school work in our state, for during the time I was a member of the legislature, and Governor, I always gave careful consideration to the progress and development of our school system. It is a great work, the rural schools have not, of course, and the advantages of the city schools, and I earnestly hope that the new law adopted under this law may prove an satisfactory and successful in every way."

"I understand that under the new law County Boards of Education are to be elected in the state in November next, and I trust that the people of every county will realize the great importance of this election and see to it that the best person possible is secured for that work shall be elected."

"The success of the law will depend in a very considerable extent upon the character and intelligence of those who serve on these County Boards."

"There is no more important work in our state than the improvement and maintenance of our schools, and I am sure that the people of this state will see to it that the best person possible is secured for that work shall be elected."

realize that good schools for all of the children are the solid foundation stones upon which a republic like ours is erected. Good schools mean an educated public which will think calmly, act wisely and vote wisely at all times and on all questions. That every child, everywhere may be educated, good schools must exist in our cities, in our small towns and in our most remote rural districts.

"Many of our large cities and towns have developed strong school systems which are giving splendid results. A few of the rural districts in Kentucky have done the same thing for their children, but many counties have been backward in giving the money and a real opportunity for a true education because of some who have permitted the schools to be passed into local politics.

Hon. A. T. Hert

"It is indeed fortunate that the look of the political parties in Kentucky at the last session of the legislature laid aside all party feeling and together passed a series of strong school laws that will result in the rural schools. These new school laws will probably take the County Boards of Education out of politics and give them out of politics if the voters will think of the children when they go to the polls in November."

"Every right thinking man and woman should vote for strong laws for the new County Boards of Education. These right thinking people should also urge schools to do likewise that every child should be developed to serve the children, and in serving the children make the state what it should be in the future."

DON'T SKIMP ON SCHOOLS

Every magazine and newspaper in the land is giving editorial comment on the wisdom of the new law. The Youth's Companion has the following to say concerning the schools in America:

"The schools of America were founded and sustained by sacrifice, only so can they be preserved. The teacher must be respected, the value and dignity of his position that he will not lightly abandon it for some occupation that offers more ease or excitement or money. And on the other hand the public must keep their hands off the schools. If they tax them heavily for schools that is too heavy in the light of doing, and it will pay salaries that do not attract the teacher in the eyes of the community. Whatever can a really good school, let it run cheap on its merits."

"Every right thinking man and woman in this country should see to it that the best person possible is secured for that work shall be elected."

FORDSON

TRADE MARK

Farm Tractor

More than 100,000 Fordson Tractors have been sold to farmers in the United States. They are helping those farmers do more and better work in less time and less cost. North, East, South, West—everywhere the Fordson has proven itself a money-maker and a real necessity to the farmer. Besides it is helping mightily to solve the labor problem.

These one hundred thousand and more practical farmers have affirmed the economy—the exceptionally low fuel and operating cost—of the Fordson; its time and labor-saving qualities and its ability to increase production. The Fordson was built to be the most economical tractor; it is compact and devoid of excessive weight. And it is built of the same strong iron and steel as in the Ford car.

Winter or bad weather does not hinder the Fordson's usefulness. Day or night—twenty four hours a day if you choose—you can utilize the Fordson.

Only so many Fordsons are allotted this territory. Orders are being filled in sequence—first come first served. Let us have yours now.

There's a practical use for the Fordson every day of the year. Let's tell you. Come in and have a tractor talk. Give us the chance to make a demonstration on your own farm.
